

New premises for the Pedersen & Partners Riga office, “Dienas bizness”

Riga, Latvia – Pedersen & Partners Riga has moved its office location to newer, larger premises.

“This is an ideal place for our business to assure a high level of confidentiality,” concluded Evita Lune, Global Digital Economy Partner at Pedersen & Partners.

Global Digital Economy Partner Evita Lune explains: “The rooms in the new office have been planned to satisfy our needs, and built in such a manner as to protect confidential business information. The office suite has multiple entrances and exits, as well as private meeting rooms. The monthly rent per square meter is about 30% higher than what we paid for the previous office, but our employees and clients appreciate the advantages of the new office, so it is worth it.” Evita especially likes the proximity of Skonto Stadium. “We are an active team, and we often exercise there to bond as a group and inspire ourselves to achieve greater things.”

Evita is also pleased with the calm environment and facilities on Antonija Street: “It is suitable for our business as we need to provide confidentiality. There are many excellent spots for business meetings around. Usually we choose the Riviera and Rossini restaurants and have lunch at Mr. Fox or Index Café – a great, interesting kitchen and service for not-so-high prices.”

Evita concludes that although Pedersen & Partners expects to see new projects and higher business intensity in the developing New Hanza City territory, Antonija Street will remain a quiet oasis in the centre of Riga.
