

Pedersen & Partners Appoints a New Country Manager for Singapore

October 1st, 2014 – Singapore – Pedersen & Partners, the leading Executive Search firm with 52 wholly owned offices in 50 Countries has announced today the addition of Yen Pin Ng as the Country Manager for the firm's office in Singapore. Earlier this year, the firm expanded its South East Asia presence by opening offices in both Singapore and Bangkok to accompany their offices in Jakarta, Shanghai, Mumbai and New Delhi and Ulaanbaatar.

Mr. Ng joins the firm from a major international Executive Search firm where he had been an Executive Vice President and prior to that, gained more than a decade of experience with Accenture, where he served as the Business Development Director responsible for the Healthcare and Technology industries.

“This is an exciting time to join Pedersen & Partners. The firm's presence in the region is quickly growing and its reputation is already strong. It will be a unique challenge to develop and head one of the firm's newest offices. We have a proven team in the region and I am confident we have the highest quality service on the market,” says Yen Pin Ng, Client Partner & Country Manager Singapore at Pedersen & Partners

“The addition of Yen Pin is extremely important as we continue building out the region. He is a highly experienced professional with an excellent understanding of Asia Pacific markets. He brings to the firm a solid background within the Management Consulting and Executive Search industries with deep knowledge of Technology and Life Sciences sectors, which are key industry segments in Asia Pacific. I am confident that Yen Pin is the right person to help Pedersen & Partners in building our brand and adding value for our clients in Singapore and throughout the region,” added Gary Williams, Managing Director for South-East Asia at Pedersen & Partners
