Team change in Pedersen & Partners Croatia

September 3rd, 2014 – Zagreb, Croatia – Pedersen & Partners, a leading international Executive Search firm, announced today that Sanja Brkić will leave Pedersen & Partners, as of 30th September, after more than 6 years as Country Manager, in order to explore new career opportunities.

The Croatian operations will be managed on an interim basis by Mona Neagoe. Ms. Neagoe is the Partner in charge of the Adriatic Region, and also oversees Hungary, Romania and the Republic of Moldova.

Ms. Neagoe will be supported by Domagoj Bedenikovic, who joins the firm as a Consultant. Mr. Bedenikovic brings a solid track record of recruitment experience, having previously worked for an international recruitment firm as a Managing Consultant and the Country Manager for Croatia. Prior to this, Mr. Bedenikovic had a successful career in sales with two Croatian media firms and a London-based pharmaceutical company.

"I am proud and delighted to become part of the Pedersen & Partners team, known as one of the leading Executive Search firms across CEE. I look forward to helping to continue to build the brand's excellence – here, locally and throughout the region," said Domagoj Bedenikovic, Consultant at Pedersen & Partners.

"Domagoj is a dedicated professional who has shown solid performance in his previous management role, and we are confident that he will add value to our team locally and continue to strengthen our reputation in Croatia. We are thankful for Sanja's years of service and we wish her well in her future endeavors," Mona Neagoe added.
